

Friday, May 24th, 2019

On our last day, we had a meeting in our school at around 8. We had a rehearsal of our theatre performance at school. After that we had a little lunch break, where everyone could eat something from the cafeteria for free. After that we went to Recklinghausen by bus. When we arrived at the RUHRFESTSPIELHAUS, it was 11 o'clock we sat down and waited for the manager.

When he came, we went inside and got ready for the last rehearsal ever. We changed and the music started playing. You could already start feeling nervous that appears when you're on stage.

The rehearsal ended at around 14.00 o'clock and was followed by an interview of the newspaper of Marl. So some of us were preparing for the show and the rest was answering questions about the show, the whole program and our exchange in general.

At 15:00 h our show started. First of all there was one person, that opened the show, me😊. And after that Germany, Spain, Italy and Portugal presented their part. At the end everyone sang the hymn, our so called self-written anthem.

In the evening at 18:00 h we went to Wuttke (a place where you can play and dance and there is a barbecue place) and had a great time doing barbecue. We were eating and dancing. It was a beautiful ending for this perfect week. The teachers were honored by giving them presents, as a ``thank you for this week.``
