In the morning of Saturday the Italian team went with a part of the German team to the train station in Marl-Sinsen. We took a lot of nice pictures. We talked a lot about our experience. It was such a beautiful week and we all wanted to spend more time together. Everybody hugged everyone. It was so emotional. A lot of pupils cried but we are still happy that we are going to see each other in October. In October we are going to get a lot of new experiences in Rome.
